- Materials You'll Need:
 - A clean and unfolded gum wrapper
 - Scissors
- Step 1: Prepare the Gum Wrapper
 - Begin by ensuring that your gum wrapper is clean and free from any crumbs or debris. Gently unfold it and smooth out any creases or wrinkles. A flat and smooth wrapper provides a better canvas for crafting your heart shape.
- Step 2: Cut the Wrapper into Strips
 - Using a pair of scissors, carefully cut the gum wrapper into two equal rectangular strips. These strips will serve as the foundation for creating the halves of your heart. Make sure your cuts are clean and even for a well-balanced final result.

Step 3: Forming the Heart Halves

- Now, take one of the rectangular strips and begin to gently curve it into a half-heart shape. The curved edge will form the rounded top of the heart. As you shape the strip, be mindful of the alignment and symmetry to ensure a visually pleasing outcome.

Step 4: Interlocking the Heart Halves

- Take the second rectangular strip and shape it into another half-heart shape, mirroring the first one. Now, carefully bring the two half-heart shapes together, interlocking them at their curved edges. This action will form the unmistakable outline of a heart. Hold the shapes in place with your fingers to assess the alignment and symmetry.

Step 5: Securing the Bond

- With the two half-heart shapes interlocked, gently press the edges together. The inner foil of the gum wrapper should hold them together, creating a bond between the two halves. This step is crucial to ensuring that your heart shape retains its form and structure. Take your time during this step to make sure the bond is secure.

Step 6: Admire Your Gum Wrapper Heart

- Release your fingers and behold your meticulously crafted heart shape made entirely from a humble gum wrapper. The metallic or colorful sheen of the wrapper adds a touch of elegance and vibrancy to your creation.
