

What are The Return Policies For Wooden Map UK?

When surfing online, there is a beautiful map of a country or a state carved with finesse in birch wood; you are sure to order it for your travel enthusiast boyfriend, your family member, or your boss. But little did you know that they don't want the gift right at this time. So, you are exploring return policies for the same on the internet and get confused for the same. Don't get disheartened, as the return of the wooden map UK is quite easy.

Returns and refunds on your map order are possible for the customer's convenience. The company that sells wooden maps has a 30-day return policy that allows any customer to make the decision of returning the map within 30 days of time. But the return policy states that you are not able to return the maps under only two conditions:

⑩ The map was customized.

Certain wooden maps are designed by the customers and finished at the factory as per their order. Such maps are custom products and fall under special orders. Such personalized products are not returned and reimbursed by the company as per their policy.

⑩ The map is damaged.

It is mandatory that the map be in the same condition as it is delivered, i.e., unused, intact packaging, and unworn. The original cardboard packaging with unique tags makes the package eligible for instant and acceptable returns. The small items packed inside the box, like pins, compass, planes, flags, etc., can't go missing for a successful return of the ordered package.

Exchange and refunds for Wooden Map UK

It is known that wooden world map in wood UK are the most loved decorative item that is delivered on the right time to your doorstep. The company takes the utmost steps to protect it during transportation with extra materials like Styrofoam and paper. The kit includes an instruction booklet, a template that helps in installation, and adhesive materials like double-sided tape to adhere the map to the wall surface.

When the map is returned to the company and the order is inspected for approval of refunds, the amount spent on the purchase is automatically refunded. It may take about 7–15 days to initiate the refund, but it is credited to the original payment method without fail.

In case of exchange, when you have a change of thought after receiving the gift for your loved ones, you can easily return the item and wait for the company's acceptance. After the return is approved, you are ready to order a new item from a lot of options available online. Our website, Your Wooden Map, has a lot of amazing map designs.

Conclusion

Buying wood maps UK is an ideal method to showcase countries and continents in your home or office without compromising on quality. But if your purchase doesn't land in the hands of adoring souls, you can make an exchange or get it returned using the refund policy of the map company without any hassles.