Building Trust with Quality Work backyard office pod

Silkohome specializes in designing and building custom backyard office pods that allow you to create a productive, inspiring, and comfortable workspace right in your own backyard. Our mission is to provide high-quality, stylish, and functional outdoor office solutions that cater to the needs of remote workers, small business owners, and creative professionals.

What We Do

We bring materials on site and we build pod in your backyard. Access is no issue as we bring materials first and construction will be done on site.

Our rooms are fully insulated with Australian made insulated panels.

All the materials are locally sourced , even windows and doors made in Melbourne

Time to order your office pod backyard and enjoy working from home in your backyard office pod
